

MyState Australian Wooden Boat Festival 2017

Sail on the Julie Burgess or visit her while in port at the Festival

Saturday February 4 - Devonport to Hobart

$1,800pp - Anticipated departure date February 3rd/4th depending on weather. Fully catered and includes souvenir pack and Parade of Sail.

Friday February 10 - Parade of Sail from Kettering to Hobart $100pp – Provides the opportunity to sail in the flotilla of Tall Ships into the River Derwent for the official opening of the MyState Australian Wooden Boat Festival. Refreshments on boarding and lunch included. Time to be confirmed.

Saturday February 11 - Day Sailings 10.30am and 3pm

$50pp – 1.5 hour sailing. Times to be confirmed.

Sunday February 12 - Open for inspection 9am-12pm

Gold coin donation

Sunday February 12 - 'The Wrest Point Cup'

$70pp. Tasmanian Trading Ketch Review - reliving the ketch races of yesteryear, the Julie Burgess will be defending her successful first placing in 2015. Time to be confirmed.

Monday February 13 - Open for inspection 9am-12pm

Gold coin donation

Monday February 13 - Sail Past

$50pp - another opportunity to join all wooden boats on the River Derwent to celebrate the finish of the festival. Time to be confirmed.

Monday February 13 - Evening Fireworks

$120pp - Join the crew for an evening on the River Derwent to enjoy the Royal Hobart Regatta Fireworks. Drinks and nibbles included. Time to be confirmed.

Tuesday February 14 - Hobart to Devonport

$1,800pp - An opportunity to take a more leisurely return leaving Hobart in the company of a number of Tall Ships. Anticipated arrival date into Devonport Monday February 20. Fully catered and includes souvenir pack.

Sailing conditions

Subject to weather, children must be 8 years of age and over, passengers must wear soft-soled enclosed footwear, warm clothing and provide own sun protection.

Phone
Email
Web
Address

03 6424 7100 for bookings
info@bassstraitmc.com.au
www.bassstraitmc.com.au
6 Gloucester Ave, Devonport