

BASS STRAIT

From the eye of the needle to the edge of the shelf

MARITIME CENTRE
DEVONPORT

Insight into Edward Higgs

With plentiful supplies of timber surrounding the Mersey River, many boat builders set up on both sides of the river. One well-known boat builder was Edward Higgs who built his own boats at Torquay, the current site of the TT Line Terminal.

*Pictured above:
Edward Higgs with his eldest grandson at his Torquay yard in 1895.*

Come along and hear his story from great grandson, Peter Higgs.

Bass Strait Maritime Centre

6 Gloucester Avenue, Devonport

Tuesday November 25 7.30pm

Admission is free

RSVP Monday November 24 to 6424 7100 or info@bassstraitmc.com.au